Mrs Grandy

Dear Friend I was glad I got home saturdy for Sunday I was very Sick but am so I can be aroundagain but still feel like a drunk man looks. the old man is still here to be waited on. they have our new house almost done. I left my night gown up there. I have been feeling so bad I have not got one preasant read for christmas to day is clauds brthday + there is an entertainment at the schoolhouse this after -noon I dont know whether Ray or I will be able to go.

please excuse this letter for I have to cough most all time. it has been about the same wind + dust here that you have up there. write soon
+ tell me all you are doing
+ where you are. Love to all
From Mrs M. Coffman
